RUSSIAN REPUBLIC

Subjects of the Czar Want a New Government

COMPLETE OVERTHROW OF MONARCHY DESIRED.

Should Labor Troubles Gain Good Foothold Position of Country Might Become Desperate.

HUNDREDS SLAIN IN VLADIVOSTOK RIOTS.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 15.—The proletariat of St. Petersburg has summoned another general political strike beginning today at noon. This action was decided upon late last night by the workers' strike committee, which now is completely under the domination of the social revolutionists, whose leaders openly proclaim that their ultimate object is the complete overthrow of the monarchy, and the establishment of a democratic republic. This also is the real aim of their brothers, the social democrats of Poland, but the proclamation issued keeps this in the background. Ad apparently supports the popular sympathy for Polish autonomy, and the indignation against the application of the death sentence being imposed on the Cronstadt mutineers. The proclamation says:

"The imperial government continues to walk over our corpses. It court-martials the bold soldiers and sailors of Cronstadt, who rose in defense of their rights and national freedom. It encircles weak and oppressed Poland with the iron ring of martial law.

"The workers' council calls on the revolutionary proletariat of St. Petersburg to renew the general political strike, which has already demonstrated its dread power in order to show brotherly solidarity with the revolutionary soldiers and sailors, as well as with the revolutionary proletariat of Poland. Let the workers of St. Petersburg cease work at noon November 15, with the cries of 'Down with the court-martial! Down with the death penalty! Down with martial law in Poland and in all Russia!'

Appeals to Strike Committee.
The committee has appealed to the strike committee throughout Russia to join in the movement, and has also appealed to the railroad men with the view of bringing about another general tie-up. One of the most potent arguments used at the meeting of the workers' delegates last night was that in this fight workers will have their efforts in behalf of the lives of mutineers to increase the sympathy felt for the workers' cause, and help them to win over the army and navy to the cause of freedom. Some of the delegates who, having the great question of national economy uppermost in their minds, namely how to increase their incomes with diminished labor, protested that the political strike would interfere with the fight for an eight-hour day, but they were rudely waved aside by the majority, who claimed that it would be time enough to deal with economical questions when they had finished with theocracy.

Strike Commences Promptly.
The strike commenced promptly on the Baltic and Warsaw railways, and it is announced that all the other lines will follow.

Although the workers of many of the big establishments beyond the Moscow and Narva gates and in the Neva and Vassil Ostroff districts promised to obey the strike mandate, those of the Putiloff and other factories declined to join in the strike.

The various professional organizations which participated in the other general strike are also lukewarm, regarding the decision of the workers' committee as hasty and ill-advised. Nevertheless in the present excited state of public opinion they may be swept off their feet, especially should some untoward incident occur.

Should the general strike again spread over the country the government's position might be rendered desperate. It is important now to deal with many of the questions confronting it, and might be terrorized into making further concessions. The ancient kingdom of Georgia following the lead of Finland and Poland has now plucked up courage and has demanded autonomy.

The attempt to restore order in the government of Kutais, Trans-Caucasia, with Russian troops, has so inflamed the populace that the municipal council of Kutais, capital of the government of that name, has telegraphed to both Count Witte and the viceroy advising against further attempts to coercion.

Hundreds Meet Death.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 15.—The latest reports from Vladivostok indicate that the rioting has not yet been suppressed. Both the sailors and the fortress artillerymen participated in the outbreak. The commandant lost his head. The situation got beyond his control, and energetic measures were not taken until a large part of the city had been destroyed. The population is still seeking refuge on the vessels in the harbor.

According to one report from Vladivostok, 300 rioters, mostly sailors and artillerymen, were killed or wounded during the first day of the outbreak.

Uprising Reaching to Extreme Points

St. Petersburg, Nov. 15.—The upheaval in Russia, following the promulgation of the reform manifesto, has now reached Vladivostok and Yeniseisk and other extreme points of the empire. Confirmation has been obtained from various sources of the reported uprising at Vladivostok, where the condition of affairs is quite critical.

Many persons have been killed, and the foreigners have taken refuge on the ships in the harbor. Many public buildings, stores and houses have been pillaged and set fire to by the mob.

The American embassy has received from Consul Greener at Vladivostok details of the outbreak which began Sunday afternoon immediately after the departure of the Russian armored cruisers. Seventy buildings were consumed. Troops were summoned to restore order and fired frequent volleys, killing many persons.

100 Killed at Krivobog.

Odessa, Nov. 15.—News has reached here of fresh disorders in the small town of Krivobog, in the government of Ekaterinoslav, in which over 100 persons were killed, and the town was sacked and half burned.

IN BANKRUPTCY

PHILIP QUINN FILED SUIT WITH CLERK PURYEAR LAST NIGHT.

W. H. Patterson Sued Interstate Life Assurance Society for Money Claimed Due Him.

Philip Quinn filed a petition in bankruptcy last evening before Clerk Puryear, of the United States court. The petitioner enumerates liabilities amounting to about $400, while he has no assets from which the creditors can collect their claims. Quinn is an Illinois Central railroad employe.

Insurance Concern Sued.

W. H. Patterson has filed suit against the interstate Life Assurance society for $30 claimed due him, because the defendant concern turned down his application for a policy on account of his age. Plaintiff claims he paid the sum to the company's agent for the policy, but the concern refused to deliver him the policy. Notwithstanding this he never returned his money and he now sues for recovery of same.

Fined by Magistrate.

George and John Ayers were yesterday fined $2 each by Justice John Burnett on the charge of engaging in a fight.

SERIOUSLY ILL.

Mr. John Porteous is Suffering From Hemorrhages.

The many friends of Mr. John Porteous will regret to learn that he is seriously ill at the family home on West Trimble street, as the result of several severe hemorrhages, which he had several nights since. He is the well known cemetery sexton and tombstone dealer, and on account of his abnormal growth the doctors do not know how the attack will turn out. He is only about 21 years old, but is seven feet tall and weighs 200 pounds.

Outfit Basement.

Mayor Yeiser is now receiving bids from parties to outfit the basement at Riverside hospital on Fourth and Clay streets, so same can be used for occupancy by colored patients of the institution. The present quarters are overcrowded with the many ailing taken there for treatment. The work will be done, right away.

The international Italian "King Humbert prize" of 2,500 francs for the most important contribution to orthopedic surgery has been awarded to Dr. Oscar Culpins, of Heidelberg.

CONFERENCE

ANNUAL SESSION ENTERED INTO AND OFFICERS SELECTED.

Rev. Roney, of Wickliffe, Has Gone Home, After Helping Rev. Cunningham—Rev. Langston

Yesterday morning at Mayfield the Memphis conference of Methodist churches entered into its annual session, and Rev. A. J. Meadows, of Covington, Tenn., elected secretary; Rev. J. W. McCoy, of Union City, Tenn., assistant secretary; Rev. L. D. Hamilton, of Clinton, Ky., second assistant secretary. The chairman of the committee on spiritual interests is Rev. H. B. Johnson, formerly of here, while Hon. J. F. Peeler and Rev. W. D. Thompson, of Memphis, were put on the committee of publishing interests. Rev. J. J. Thomas is chairman of the committee on temperance.

Revs. Newell, Fields and Armstrong, of here, have gone there to be absent until next week. It has been arranged that Rev. E. B. Ramsey come here and preach Sunday morning at the Broadway church, while the two other pastors will make arrangements for their pulpits to be supplied.

Baptist Revivals.

The Second Baptist church revivals at Ninth and Ohio streets continue with great interest and large attendance. Last evening there were nine up for prayer, and one conversion effected.

Rev. Roney, of Wickliffe, has been assisting Rev. E. H. Cunningham with the protracted meetings, but yesterday returned to his home. The regular pastor will continue the meetings until next Sunday when they will be brought to a close, after a run of three weeks, during which time much good was effected and many conversions made.

Atlanta Minister Here.

Rev. C. A. Langston, of Atlanta, Ga., is in the city visiting his aunt, Mrs. James P. Holt, of West Broadway, and next Sunday he will preach at the New Hope church in the county. He has charge of a large congregation at Atlanta and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Langston, of the county.

FRACTURED MEMBERS.

Miss Phelps Injured in the Elevator at Rhodes-Burford's.

Miss Phelps, niece of Mr. Bess Phelps, of Thirteenth and Tennessee streets, was yesterday on the elevator at the Rhodes-Burford establishment, on North Fourth near Broadway, when she got caught in such a manner as to break her right leg. The fractured bone was set by Dr. Jeff Robertson, who sent the young lady home.

The three-year old girl of Mr. A. H. Fox, of Campbell, near Thirteenth street, is suffering from a broken right arm, caused by another child who was carrying the baby, dropping the little one.

DISSOLVED.

Kentucky Insurance Companies Have Body by Themselves.

Heretofore the four insurance companies doing business in Kentucky and Tennessee have maintained the Kentucky and Tennessee board of fire underwriters, which organization made rates on buildings and regulated the business otherwise. Yesterday the body started in on its annual meeting for election of officers, at the Galt House in Louisville, and dispatches from there are that the association dissolved and Kentucky will have an independent one by itself, as will Tennessee. The officers are now being chosen for the new bodies.

LAMP OVERTURNED.

Small Blaze Started at Seventh and Clark Streets Last Evening.

Last evening about 6 o'clock the fire departments were called to Seventh and Clark streets by a small fire that originated in the little frame standing in the rear of the building that Matt Husbands has been occupying. The parties in the house had turned over a lamp which exploded and scattered burning oil everywhere, but the flame which started had been extinguished by the occupants by the time the stationmen and apparatus arrived. The loss will amount to practically nothing.

SELL GRANT

MAYOR YEISER OFFERS FOR SALE THE FERRYBOAT FRANCHISE.

If Circumstances Demand it Hereafter, the Ferryboat Must Be Run Twice Every Sunday.

Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the city hall Mayor Yeiser will offer for sale the franchise for operation of a ferryboat between this city, Brookport, Ill., and the upper Illinois landings opposite this city.

The grant is a renewal of that held by Owen brothers, who operate the ferryboat Bettie Owen, but of course anybody desiring can bid on same.

The Messrs. Owen got a franchise twenty years ago, but this expired month before last, and ordinances have been adopted, renewing same, the renewal having to be made through medium of a sale at public auction, so they can buy it in.

The renewal is made with the understanding that if hereafter there arises a demand that some ferryboat be run on the Sabbath between here and the Illinois landings, that ordinance can be adopted, amending the original bill, compelling the Owen brothers to make two trips every Sunday over to the other side of the Ohio. The municipal legislative boards considered the question that before expiration of this renewal a new town might spring up over on the Illinois shore, or Brookport may grow to such a size as to demand the operation of a ferry twice each Sunday, for the benefit of the inhabitants not only of over there, but this city also. The boards came very near placing this Sunday trip clause in the present renewal, but as circumstances at present do not justify this they passed the measure with the understanding the amendments would provide for, such when the occasion arose in the hereafter.

FIRE WIPES OUT TOWN.

Only Five of 200 Homes Left—Loss From $200,000 to $300,000.

Bluefield, W. Va., Nov. 15.—Fire wiped out the entire town of Burke yesterday, entailing a loss estimated between $200,000 and $300,000. Only four dwellings and one two-room room remain of more than 200 houses, and it was only by heroic work on the part of the volunteers that this small portion of the town was saved.

PRIVATE PAPERS

OF DEAD CASHIER.

Attempt to Ascertain Value of Estate—Badly Mixed Affairs.

Pittsburg, Nov. 15.—The private papers of T. Lee Clark, the dead banker?—fl 1234 1 1234567890 cashier of the Enterprise National bank, of Allegheny, which are now under examination by the appraisers appointed to determine the value of Clark's estate are said to show that Clark's outside financial transactions began seven years ago and that he was interested in many corporations, including several mining ventures. Among his holdings at the time of his death, it is said was a half-interest in a string of high-bred Kentucky horses. So confusing are the papers that those in charge have no idea when they can complete their work, or what the value of the estate will be. The lawyers for the estate, it is said, do not expect to save any of Clark's assets except the insurance money which has been paid to Mrs. Clark.

MUST ENLARGE

THERE ARE FIFTY ARC LIGHTS NEEDED BUT NOT SUPPLIED.

Provision Will Be Made for Enlargement of the City's Power House Next Spring.

At present there are 164 arc lights strung around over the city at the respective street corners, furnishing illumination for the public thoroughfares, while at least fifty applications have been made for more to be placed, especially out in the suburbs, where the town is rapidly growing and being built up by the many hundreds of inhabitants, who are putting up homes and pushing that portion of the municipality to the front. The city officials are now preparing to make provisions for appropriations for enlargement of the plant next spring. In the apportionment ordinance that becomes effective after the first of next year, it will be stipulated that a certain sum, probably $15,000, is to be set aside for the needed improvement of this municipal plant.

The board of works wanted to enlarge the power house last spring, but the legislative authorities would not allow them the needed money because of the numerous expenses to be borne elsewhere in the public departments. A host of improvements have been made this year in nearly all the departments except that of the lighting plant, and the vital importance of some action being taken towards this has become so plain this coming year, according to one of the city authorities who is in a position to speak with some authority.

This official yesterday said that he doubted whether the plant would pull through entirely this winter, with the old engine they have pressed into service, as its breakdown could be looked for at any time.

CHINESE EMPEROR

GRANTED AUDIENCE

To Japanese Who Are in China to Settle Manchurian Affairs.

Peking, Nov. 15.—Afternoon.—The Japanese envoys will be given an audience tomorrow, November 16, by the emperor. The conference will open Friday next, November 17, by the exchange of credentials. The Chinese plenipotentiary are Prince Chaig, Yuan Shai-Kai, Viceroy of the Chi-Li province, and Chia-Hun-Chi, secretary of state. The greatest reticence is maintained on both sides, and even well-informed diplomats can only speculate on the probable result of the conference.

DEMONSTRATION

MANY HUNDREDS WERE IN THE BIG PARADE OF YESTERDAY.

The Committee Is Confident of Success With Their Automobile Project Favored by Many.

Organized labor to the extent of about 600 were out yesterday participating in the procession and demonstration conducted out of sympathy for the striking motormen and conductors of the street railway system. The union members paraded the streets, starting at Ninth and Tennessee, following the line of march published through these columns on Tuesday morning. They commenced their march about 2 o'clock and it consumed fully an hour for the procession to pass through the public thoroughfares outlined. They wound down into the business portion of the city, went out Broadway to Ninth, over to Jefferson, back down to Sixth, thence into Broadway and down to Fourth, where the body disbanded and part repaired to the Central Labor hall on North Fourth street while the balance went over to the city hall at Fourth and Kentucky avenue. One single assembly room was inadequate and could not hold the many hundred out, so a division was made, half going to one place and the remainder to the other. Mr. John D. Wood, Kentucky's federated labor president, and the prominent coal man of Central City, spoke first at the city hall and while he was talking, over at the Central Labor room there was speaking Mr. C. O. Pratt, president of the executive committee for the International Union of Street Railway Employees. When Mr. Pratt finished at the labor headquarters he was followed by Lawyer L. K. Taylor, of this city. Mr. Pratt then repaired to the city hall, which he reached by the time Mr. Woods finished. Mr. Pratt then spoke there relieving Mr. Woods, who went to the labor hall, which he reached by the time Lawyer Taylor had completed his address. Mr. Woods then took the floor and spoke at some length to the assembled mass.

Run Automobiles.

The labor committee that has in charge the question of forming a stock company for the operation of automobiles in opposition of the street cars yesterday commenced an active canvass among the business men, laboring classes and others soliciting stock subscriptions. They had good success, and their intention is to get up a company of $10,000 capital and buy a number of machines that will traverse all the streets and carry to the front door the patrons riding in the automobiles. The committee was quite elated over the success they had yesterday, and are confident that their project will be a success.

NEW GOVERNMENT

Isle of Pines Wants Independence of Cuba.

SUCH DECLARATION HAS BEEN ISSUED.

Wishes to Become a Territory of United States and Asks for Uncle Sam's Favor.

ELECTION CALLED TO SELECT LEGISLATURE.

New York, Nov. 15.—A cable from Havana says: Residents of the Isle of Pines have issued a declaration of their independence from Cuba and organized a new government as a United States territory. A delegate to congress will be sent to Washington in order to have the question affecting the future of the island discussed before the house of representatives, ignoring Cuban authority.

Mass-meetings were held under the name of territorial conventions, and officials were appointed to fill all positions except those that must be named by the president, under the Constitution of the United States. The first officers of the new territory are:

T. B. Anderson, secretary of state; J. M. Stoere, treasurer; Ed C. Ryan, delegate to congress; A. T. Fries, chief justice; David B. Wall, sheriff.

Five Districts.

The convention divided the island into five districts and ordered elections to be held Tuesday to select members of the legislature, which is to convene next week, tax assessors and collectors. One ticket was named in each district, the only political question being to keep the island under the Stars and Stripes. The election proceeded in an orderly manner, under the forms of law, the men on the different tickets announcing that they will take office immediately with out regard to those serving under the Cuban government.

First official notice of the affair is contained in this letter:

"Neuva Gerona, Isle of Pines, Nov. 14, 1905.—Mr. Theodore Roosevelt, President, Washington; Dear Sir—The people of this island having purchased homes under the treaty of Paris, believing it was United States territory, and having waited over three years for recognition of their rights as American citizens, fearing a continuation of these conditions and feeling alarm at the condition of Cuba during the coming election, have taken preliminary steps for the establishment of a territorial government under the Constitution of the United States, believing this the proper step for us to take, and the most effective way to receive justice and equity from our national law-making body, also relying upon you, our president, for a square deal.

"We trust our action will meet your approval. Yours respectfully,

"T. B. ANDERSON,

"Chairman Territorial Convention."

One Dissenting Voice.

At the meeting there was only one voice raised against the action taken. That was by a man who expressed fear of the results, asserting that all are liable to punishment under Cuban laws.

Fully one-third of those named living on the island are American citizens. About half the natives live in the little town of Neuva Gerona. Their inclination is said to have the island belong to the United States.

This movement to sever relations with Cuba was fomented by the American club. Sixty members of the club met last week Monday, declared themselves a territorial convention, and took steps to organize a government. A recess was taken until Saturday. More than 200 persons gathered at Neuva Gerona, United States Secretary of State Elhu Root, Gen. Leonard Wood and others concerned in having the Cuban banner raised were denounced.

It was decided to have a legislature of eleven men, two from each district and one delegate-at-large, Dr. Ramon Rodriguez, the nomination for that office.

Old-Style Southern Meeting.

"It was like an old-style Southern mass meeting, all enthusiasm," said S. H. Peary to a press correspondent yesterday. Mr. Peary is vice president of the Isle of Pines company, which controls 150,000

CONTRACT VALID

APPELLATE BENCH DECIDED EVERYTHING ALL RIGHT WITH ORDINANCE.

Lawyers Cecil Reed and J. S. Ross Return Today from South—Judge Reed Resumes Court.

Telegrams from Frankfort yesterday announced that Judge Reed, of the local circuit court, was right in holding as valid the ordinances and orders of the municipal legislative boards for the reconstruction part of Kentucky avenue and also Jefferson. This sets at rest all doubts as to the legality of the measures, and now things are settled in this respect.

City Solicitor James Campbell, who filed the ex parte suit to have the ordinance, etc., tested in the courts, yesterday said that some few people seemed to misconstrue the position he took in the matter in believing that he claimed solely that the ordinance was illegal. He continued that this was not the case, but that he set up before the court many points he thought legal in the measures and orders, and then those he thought may not be valid. There being some difference of opinion as to the ordinance as a whole, he had the document tested in the courts so that every section could be construed and the measure passed on in that manner. He is glad the appellate bench sustained Judge Reed, because it saves the trouble of introducing new ordinances and going over the entire question again, that of drawing up contracts awarding the work, etc. This decision sets at rest all things, and although while the solicitor thinks the moral obligation about as binding as the legal one, he wanted the proposition decided by the courts so as to obviate the possibility of any complications arising hereafter from any side, that of the contractor, abutting property owner or municipality.

Lawyers Returning.

Lawyers J. S. Ross and Cecil Reed will return today from Birmingham, Ala., and Atlanta, Ga., where they have been to wind up the business outstanding at the branch offices maintained at those two cities by The People's Home Purchasing company, which was forced out of business here. This proceeding will come up for adjudication during the present session of circuit court before Judge Reed, if the volume of business before the tribunal is not so great it has to be postponed.

Resumes Court Today.

Judge W. M. Reed returned last night from Russellville, Ky., where he has been taking depositions for use in a law suit. He will this morning resume his circuit court and commence trial of the different proceedings that are submitted to him personally from the equity side of the docket, which means that side necessitating no jury to try the litigations.

WILL NOW AGREE

INTERSTATE SAYS THEY MUST HAVE VERDICT OF ENTIRE JURY.

The Proceeding is Dismissed and Goes Over to January for Another Hearing.

The officials of the Interstate Life Assurance society, of Indianapolis, Ind., will not accept the sealed verdict of the jury which heard the proceeding wherein the commonwealth of Kentucky seeks to fine the insurance corporation $500 on the ground that the latter violated the state law stipulating that insurance companies should be made to pay that assessment into the state treasury, if they are convicted of giving rebates of premiums to policy holders in the concern.

The word from the Indianapolis office was received yesterday morning and this means that the sealed verdict will have to be destroyed, the jury dismissed as "hung" and the proceeding continued over for another trial next January, which is the time for the next civil session of court.

It takes a full jury of twelve men to decide the case, all having to render an opinion the same way. This jury is divided, nine of them being one way and the other three thinking opposite. It is not known how the jury stood in the division, whether the majority is for fining the insurance company or for dismissing the proceeding. The commonwealth lawyers agreed to accept whatever verdict the nine men brought in, and their opinion was sealed in an envelope, but the insurance people refuse this, they wanting the full twelve men to decide the matter as a whole, with no division.

A meteor whose weight is estimated at fifty tons recently fell in Mexico.

VICTIMS IN TIMES OF PEACE

Said That Railways Kill and Maim More Men Than the Bloodiest of Wars.

When the young men of the country are called forth to war, they march through the streets with flags flying and bands playing inspiring music. The people crowd the streets and greet them with applause. When news of a battle is received, the entire nation is sad at the story of lives destroyed. Those who thus die are honored for their heroism, and monuments are erected to their memory, while those who return maimed are pensioned. Not so, however, the army which goes forth daily to do duty upon our railroads. One in every 80 of them will be permanently disabled, and one in every nine of the injured will be killed, says Pearson's Magazine. They pass away, unknown and unhonored, save as to their families and friends.

A more vivid notion of the destructiveness of railroads may be had by considering the fact that in the great Crimean conflict, which was one of the bloodiest wars in history, the British lost less than half as many slain and wounded as were killed and maimed on the iron roads in this country during last year. In any twelvemonth about 60,000 persons are killed or injured on the railroads of the United States—a much greater number than fell at the battle of Sedan, which sealed the fate of the second empire of France. Wellington won Waterloo, and Meade Gettysburg, with losses of 3,185 and 23,003 respectively, and the total losses on both sides at Shiloh in the two days' murderous fight did not reach 24,000.

More railroad employees were killed in the United States last year than three times the number of union men slain at the battles of Lookout Mountain, Missionary Ridge and Orchard Knob combined. The number of injured among these workers in the transportation business was greater than that of the wounded and missing at Shiloh, Antietam and the First and Second Bull Run combined. More faithful tollers on the iron roads of this country went down in sudden death during the twelvemonth than perished in the Battle of the Wilderness.

Each year, one in every ten trainmen in the United States (this term including engineers, firemen, conductors and brakemen) is injured, and one in every 135 is killed. Two hundred and fifty men are killed and 2,900 are disabled in an average twelvemonth, while coupling or uncoupling cars. In the same length of time 95 persons are slain and 990 injured, by being knocked from cars by bridges and other obstacles at the side of the track. On the other hand, only one passenger is killed for every 1,880,000 carried, and one hurt for every 97,000. The average passenger travels 2,946,373 miles before he is injured, and he goes 57,000,000 miles before he loses his life.

FAMOUS FOR INDUSTRY.

Sobriety and Decency of Life a Mark of the German Peasant of To-Day.

The bauer (peasant farmer) hugs the soil, and will waste none of it for hedges. He cultivates his land in oblong plots, each strip carrying out crop—corn, rye, tobacco, beet, man gold, turnip or what not, says a letter in the London Spectator. He works in summer from light to dark; in winter as it suits him. His fruit trees are planted along the roads and fields, paths which run through and separate the tillaged acreage whereof his village is the pivot.

He inherits the land as his fathers inherited it before him, and each heritable portion is supposed to furnish sustenance for so many lives. He swinks to keep clear of the money-lending shark, and here industrialism helps. For if brothers and sisters through past ability of support from the land, they take work at the nearest factory, infrequently several miles distant. That eases the ancestral leaness, and makes readjustment feasible. However the bauer may mow week in, week out, his linen is spotless and his clothes unsoiled on Sundays. His wife would scorn herself were they otherwise. Somewhat uncouth, rough, bluff, shrewd, stanch, the military authorities wisely take heavy toll of his sound lungs and muscular limbs. They know a man when they see one. And women do much of the actual farm work in Germany as a consequence.

What hard-working mothers, and wives and daughters are the women of Germany! What splendid women! What does not that great nation owe to its women! Broad-bosomed, deep-chested, wide-backed, big-bhipped, rarely beautiful, but, however plain, pleasant-faced, healthy creatures. No shrinking of maternity with them. And their husbands' comrades and sharers of their troubles always, yet always, it would seem, making Peter's injunction their absolute rule of conduct.

Inappropriate Ornaments.

On taking their seats for the first time on the bench at the newly erected courthouse at Delmorehorst, Germany, the judges were much perturbed to find that the architect had ornamented the portico with the sculptured head of a fox on one side and that of a sheep on the other.

Eavesdropping?

Miss Elderleigh—Would you believe it, my dear—I listened to six declarations of love at the dance last night! Miss Speight—How interesting! You must have been sitting behind some awfully pretty girl—Chicago Sun.

Gift of Time.

"One day," related the jolly hobo, "I met a man on a street and I told him if he would give me 30 quail I would show him how to eat them in 30 days." "And did he oblige yer?" asked his companion of the ties.

"No," he said he couldn't give me 30 quail, but he'd give me 30 days. He was a judge."—Chicago News.

Excusable.

Jennie—Why, Cecily, you look radiant. What has happened?

Cecily—I've just received an invitation to a wedding.

"Well, that's nothing to go into raptures over."

"Ah, but this happens to be my own."—Cassell's.

Avoiding Trouble.

Nephew—Why, uncle, what are you doing?

Uncle—Tearing up my will.

Nephew—What are you doing that for?

Uncle—So my fool heirs won't get a chance to break it.—Chicago News.

The Greatest Birthright.

Some men are born to rule. And some are born to serve. But the ones who get the cream of things are not the tollers or the kings—They're the lucky ones with nerve.—Chicago Record-Herald.

NEEDED WINDING.

Miss Subbubs—All the flowers in the garden are in bloom now, except the four-o'clocks.

Mr. Wise—Maybe you forgot to wind them up.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Just Soaux.

A pretty young maid from Bordeaux was walking along with her beaux. When asked if she'd wed she timidly said: "If you can come up with the docuz."—Judge.

An Adaptation.

"Let me see," said the forgetful man.

"What's the rest of that saying about 'Too many cooks'?"

"Well," replied the man who had just returned from Paris, "too many Cook's spoll the enjoyment of other tourists."—Philadelphia Press.

The Cheerful Borrower.

Jasper—Say, old chap, can you lend me ten?

Jumpuppe—What! Are you broke again?

Jasper—Oh, no. This is the same old fracture.—Town Topics.

A Great Light.

Homeless Holmes—Dis here paper says dat soap is good for mokeester bites.

Petered Pete—Say, I been a wonder in all me life wot dat stuff was good for!—Cleveland Leader.

Just the Thing.

"I wish I had a good title for my new book."

"What's it about?"

"The world's most famous battler."

"Then why not call it 'Scraps of History'?"—Chicago Sun.

Getting Local Color.

"Somebody told me your son was engaged in literary work, Mrs. Joboitis," said the friend.

"I guess you might call it that. He is taking the names for the new city directory."—Judge.

Recognize This One?

"Let me learn from your eyes what my fate is to be," sang the poet; "let them teach the secrets."

"Thank you," interrupted the lady, "they have pupils enough now."—Cleveland Leader.

Sounded That Way.

"If I were you I shouldn't always explain to people that I composed that song myself."

"Why, do you think it's concocted?"

"No—it's superfluous."—Cleveland Leader.

His Share in the Gaiety.

"Do you think you will pay much attention to social matters this season?"

"No," answered Mr. Cumrox. "I won't pay attention. I'll simply pay bills."—Washington Star.

Too Easy.

"What makes the street cars so crowded to-night?"

"The passengers. Give me a harder one."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Would Need Identification.

Woman—If you'll wash your face I'll give you a meal.

Tramp—But how'll you know it's me when I get it washed?—Judge.

Wore 'Em Out.

Ma Twaddles (to a caller)—My husband is so hard on trousers.

Tommy Twaddles (trudfully)—Yes—on mine!—Cleveland Leader.

His Reputation.

Bacon—That lawyer couldn't tell the truth if he tried.

Egbert—No, not unless he was paid for it.—Yonkers Statesman.

GREAT BIT OF LUCK.

"I was riding uptown in a surface car in New York one day the other week," said a post office inspector, "when a mighty badlooking accident occurred."

"At Forty-second street a well-dressed, middle-aged man undertook to swing himself on board the open car while it was starting, just after making the stop at that corner."

"He had got one foot on the running board, when the foot that still rested on the wet pavement slipped. He slipped and fell forward on his hands. His left leg shot beneath the wheels of the moving car."

"The conductor, who was collecting fares from the running board, frantically rang the bell to stop the car. Then men in the car, including myself, shouted hoarsely, and the women on the car screamed as if bedlam had broken loose. One of the women sank back in a dead faint, and she had to be carried into a drug store after the incident was over."

"The conductor's signal to the motorman was too late. The car wasn't brought to a stop till there was a horrible grinding, jelling, crunching sound. The wheels had passed over the middle-aged man's left leg. It was sickening."

"A hundred pedestrians rushed from the crowded sidewalk to do what they could to assist the prostrate man."

"When they got to him he was lying downward, with his face resting on his hands. His hat had fallen some distance away, and his head looked gray and venerable."

"But the prostrate man was laughing just fit to kill!"

"He was absolutely shrieking with merriment. He was giving vent to explosions of pure enjoyment. He positively shouted and bawled in the overplus of his tremendous mirth."

"He laughed so hard that it seemed as if his sides must be just aching him."

"People away up Sixth avenue heard his happy, boisterous hal ha! and came rushing along to see what was producing all of the fun."

"The pain of having his leg cut off had put the poor old gentleman off his head," was the sympathetic remark of a lot of us who stood around watching him and listening to his almost violent outbreaks of mirth. His agony has made him delicious, poor old chap," became the universal verdict as the middle-aged man's roars of laughter grew even louder."

"But there was something in the quality of his laughter that puzzled me, for all that. It sounded to me like mighty healthy, human, rollicking laughter—laughter that was actually proceeding from the mirthful midriff of the run-over man. To my ears it didn't have even a little bit of the gruesome sound of the kind of laughter that proceeds from those in a state of delirium."

"There, there, old chap, easy now—we'll get you out of that fix all right," said some of the willing helpers, as they started to see what they could do toward disentangling the middle-aged man from the wheels of the car."

"Thanks, boys," he replied, to their amazement, in a tone of perfect understanding. "But, say," he went on, "it's so blamed funny!" and he went into another paroxysm of laughter."

"The helpers looked at one another with mystified countenances."

"Why, that man's not hysterical, nor bug-house, either," said one of them. "Say, old friend," he continued, addressing the still prostrate man, "what's all this that's so infernally funny, hey? You might as well let us all in on it, hey?"

"The man who was lying face downward on the wet pavement, with his leg still under the car wheel, restrained his mirth with great difficulty long enough to gasp:

"Why, dang it all, boys, can't you see that the leg that's been run over is a woo-woo-wooden leg!" and then he howled joyously once again."

"The willing helpers looked as if they'd gone up against a sad sort of a sell, but the prostrate man's laughter was perfectly infectious, and they joined in it."

"Then they managed to pull him from beneath the car, when they saw that, sure enough, the crushed leg was of the seasoned ash variety."

"They put the good-humored middle-aged man into a cab and sent him along to the home address he gave. He waved his hand merrily at them out of the cab window before starting for home."

"Well, boys," he called out, "I mayn't have beat the devil around the stump this time, but I'll be hanged if I haven't beat him with it!"

"Whereupon the big bunch broke into a spontaneous cheer for the old boy's gameness, and the car went ahead about its business."—Washington Star.

Mortality.

"You seem to have a pretty large cemetery here, my friend."

"Wul, yeah."

"What causes most of the deaths, if I may ask?"

"Wul, liver complaint, mostly."

"No!"

"Yeah. A feller with a white liver ain't no ways likely to last long in this gulch, stranger."—Puck.

Preocious Wit.

Little Gladys—Auntie, dear, do all the people who die and go to the bad place camp out?

Aunt—Why, no, child. Why do you ask?

Little Gladys—Well, our Sunday school teacher told us to-day that the heat was in tents.—Judge.

If McCurdy, McCall, et al. are not grafters they are worse. Their own admissions convict them.

Is James H. Hyde "Hazen" the New York insurance investigation committee or is the committee "Hazen" James H. Hyde? Some one of the two is being done in a way.

It is doubtful, in view of his late interview, if Gov. Herrick, of Ohio, would write the same Thanksgiving proclamation now that he wrote before the election. The returns of the vote on the 7th have clearly soured him much.

Some fellow in Boston has gone after Lawson, of "frenzied finance" fame, with a charge of criminal libel and Lawson has retorted with a like charge. Now here's a pretty fight and our money is on Lawson. A fellow who tackles the ex-mayor of Grand River and hero of "frenzied finance" had as well go agin' a buzz saw.

Memphis evidently intends to reduce her population largely. The "thugs" are to be driven out of the place, says the Commercial-Appeal. Accepting the publications of the press during the late election in that city as reasonably correct there are more thugs, rascals, etc., in Memphis than there are good people and to oust them—if the threat is not buncombe—means a big loss of citizens. The declaration of the Commercial-Appeal is idle, no doubt.

It is generally declared that the statement that England, Japan and Mexico would build a canal through Nicaragua is a canard pure and simple. The act would be, as is properly regarded, a direct slap to this government and inimical to its interest and an act any unfriendly nation might even hesitate about doing and hence one it is foolish to credit to a trio of friendly nations. There will be no Nicaraguan canal for years if ever, unless the United States fails to dig the isthmus basin or withdraws from support of the enterprise.

The Russians are again on the verge of revolting, according to the latest report. The turbulent element can't or won't be good. When the hatred of the Jews, the antagonism of the Tartars and the Armenians, the Poles longing for freedom, the work of the nihilists and the general enmity of the reactionaries and the oppression of the autocrats is recalled revolution seems the only relief to the people and may be the final outcome of the disturbed conditions. Peace may come to Russia after a while, but it appears doubtful just now.

It is said Secretary Taft wore a smile all the way from the Panama to Washington. He was doubtless thinking of the result of the election in Ohio and the pleasure he would have in saying to the president, "I told you so." Mr. Taft had declared himself against the Ohio grafters, particularly those in Cincinnati, and was pleased no doubt over the idea that he is stronger in Ohio than the president was disposed to think. By the by, it would be as funny as it is no doubt comforting to Secretary Taft if the late democratic victory in Ohio brought him forward again as a successor to Mr. Roosevelt.

Judge Hamilton, of New York, who was given so much money by the New York Life Insurance company to be used to corrupt legislatures, seems to have held out a goodly part of the money and left for Europe to enjoy the sun and keep out of reach of justice, for he is not to be found. But McCall, the president of the company, who made Hamilton's holdout possible, promises to make the amount good. The fitness of the prevail. They held one session last will have to give up so much of his ill-gotten "salary" to make the Hamilton graft good.

The Isle of Pines, as it appears from cable reports, has declared its independence and wants to become a territory of the United States. The story of the revolution is interesting though, because of the strength of the seceders and the territory embraced, it is somewhat ridiculous. The Isle of Pines is not larger than McCracken county and has fewer people than has Paducah. The so-called revolution is likely to be only a nine days' wonder chiefly because of the fact that the Washington administration is certain to treat the whole matter coolly and Cuba may be slightly severe in their reprimand. Nevertheless the desires of the residents of the Isle of Pines for a change of government rule reads like it is a just appeal for relief.

CONGO QUESTION BECOMES ACUTE.

England and France Preparing to Utterly Ignore German Interests.

Berlin, Nov. 15.—In consequence of the strained relations existing between Great Britain and Germany, the "Congo question" has become acute, and may create a danger to the world's peace more serious than that afforded by Morocco, according to a well-informed Berlin diplomat.

The Cape-to-Cairo railway has already passed the Victoria Falls in the Zambesi, but England no longer wishes to continue the line through German East Africa, and must decide for the Congo Free State according to this authority. He adds that the alleged atrocities of King Leopold of Belgium in the Congo territory will be taken as a pretext for an Anglo-French bargain giving France the northern part of the Congo and England the eastern part.

The German emperor, it is believed, will not be disposed passively to observe this arrangement, which leaves Germany out of consideration.

The British and French governments have prepared vast amounts of testimony to demonstrate that the present regime in the Congo territory cannot continue.

At the Congo congress, which will shortly be assembled, the Fatherland will do its utmost to check the proposed Anglo-French move.

DENS ARE RAIDED.

"Red Light" District of Middlesboro Has Been Cleaned Up.

Middlesboro, Ky., Nov. 15.—By order of Judge Sowder all the dens have been raided, and the "Over the Rhine" district has been cleaned up. John Stewart, who is charged, shot at Charlie Overton Sunday, has been driven into the mountains, and will have to surrender soon.

While at target practice Tuesday morning Lieut. Howard's pistol went off accidentally and he received a painful wound in the leg. The town is very quiet, but is still guarded by the soldiers.

IN FOR LIFE

JAMES EZELL'S DEATH SENTENCE WAS COMMUTED YESTERDAY.

The Young Man Who Killed Fellow Railroadman, by Cutting His Throat.

As stated through these columns would be done, the board of pardons for the state of Pennsylvania has commuted to life imprisonment the death sentence of James Ezell, the young telegraph operator who killed a fellow railroadman at Uniontown, Penn. The board recommends to the governor of the state that the commutation be effected, and the latter always concurs in their suggestion, which means that the young man will not be put to death on the gallows, or in the electrical chair, but will spend the balance of his days in the penitentiary.

Young Ezell is the son of Mr. Bud Ezell, the well known tobaccoist now of Paris, Tenn., but formerly of Graves and Calloway counties. He was employed by a railroad entering Uniontown as operator in the dispatcher's office. One night the young fellow had been drinking and the yardmaster for the road at that point refused to let him continue sending train orders for fear his condition would result in a mistake being made that would wreck the trains. The yardmaster laid Ezell off and then started to report his act over the telephone to the superintendent of the division. Ezell heard the other talking over the phone and took exception to the statement being made that he was drinking. He and the yardmaster had a few words, with the result that the operator pulled a razor and cut the throat of the other, who died in a few moments.

The grand jury for the criminal term of circuit court indicted Ezell for willful murder and the jury decided that he should be put to death. Hon. Hal Corbett represented him throughout and carried the verdict to the supreme court of that commonwealth, where the lower court was affirmed and the sentence ordered carried out. Mr. Corbett did not lose hope, however, and laid the matter before the board of pardons at their session the third Wednesday of October, requesting that the verdict be changed to life imprisonment. At the gathering the board virtually decided to make the commutation order, but on account of urgent business calling all the members away they did not have time to do this. The next session of the board of pardons was held yesterday, when they entered up the necessary order which spares the life of the young man, but consigns him to a fearful doom as it is.

The telegram informing Mr. Corbett to that effect reached this city yesterday, but he himself is yet in Washington, D. C., where he went on important business and will not get back until the last of the week.

acres out of a total of 700,000 on the island.

"We are fighting for justice," he continued. "Wood sold us out, lock, stock and barrel, for two coaling stations after he had assured us the island would be retained by the United States."

"Cuba's only interest in the isle is to afford snug births for a few officials. There are about twenty-two officers on the island, filled by carpet-baggers, as no native has one. The Cuban government has collected taxes and not spent 5 cents, except for salaries."

"Personally I have just lost $1,000, as flour and other merchandise which I brought from Mobile had passed through a warehouse without a roof and nothing to protect the goods from rain. The ylave refused to repair the dock or roads. We claim rights which were guaranteed us. We have set up as an American territory and propose to maintain that status. Any person who has in his blood any of the spirit displayed by those in the Boston Tea Party will sympathize with us in our effort for freedom."

Washington Will Oppose Movement.

Washington, Nov. 15.—It has been known for several months that American residents in the Isle of Pines were becoming restive under Cuban control, but no intimation has been received in official circles here that they intended to resort to radical measures to assert what they believe to be their rights as American citizens.

The announcement that at mass meetings of the residents of the island delegates were chosen to come to Washington to antagonize the treaty pending before the senate for the formal transfer of the island to the republic of Cuba was not surprising to the administration officials, but surprise was created at the reported erection of a territorial government on the island and the selection of independent officials to administer the affairs of that government. No advice indicating such action have been received officially and nothing is known of it except that which is contained in the press dispatches.

Embarrasses "Uncle Sam."

The statement is made frankly by administration officials that the attitude of residents of the Isle of Pines toward the treaty negotiated with Cuba for the formal transfer of the island to the Cuban government has embarrassed rather seriously the United States in its relations with the republic of Cuba.

The treaty was negotiated in good faith to carry out what is regarded by the president and other officials of the administration as the evident intent of the treaty of Paris and to clear away any doubt which might exist as to the control of the island.

No Support Here.

It can be said that the would-be seceders will receive no encouragement from the administration. Secretary of State Root, when he was secretary of war, was very clear and emphatic on the points "that the Isle of Pines belonged to Cuba as a matter of right, as a matter of international law and as a matter of justice," furthermore, that in procuring naval stations in Cuba for the United States there was a general understanding that the Isle of Pines was to be ceded to Cuba, although its title has been in doubt.

The reported secession of the residents from Cuban control is deprecated vigorously, but action regarding it, if any should be contemplated, would be taken only after the government has been advised officially and fully as to the situation.

Postmaster-General Cortelyou Makes Changes of Importance.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Postmaster-General Cortelyou today issued an order of far-reaching importance, re-distributing the duties of the four assistant postmasters-general and affecting the entire postal service. The order will carry into effect on December 1 a plan of the postmaster-general to consolidate the work by grouping under one bureau all related subjects. The result will be to place under the postmaster-general's personal supervision the direction of the postal service; under the first assistant the postoffice personnel and management; under the second assistant all matters relating to the transportation of the mails; under the third assistant all matters of postal finance, and under the fourth assistant the rural free delivery and miscellaneous postal business.

CANNOT AFFORD LARGE FAMILIES.

Bomb on Race Suicide Question at Meeting of Advanced Women.

New York, Nov. 15.—The better class of people in New York cannot afford large families. They have too much to pay in taxes to support the large families of the thoughtless poor.

This is the bomb which Mrs. S. B. Cory exploded at the Society for Political Study in a resume of the evils patient New Yorkers stand, which created the greatest sensation in the society's history.

"New York property owners," said Mrs. Cory, "pay an increasingly large tax every year, due mainly to the enormous immigration."

"Who, may I ask, would want to pay taxes to educate children that should never have been brought into the world? Why should the thrifty pay for the shiftless?"

"I am not so unchristian as to say that the child once here should not be cared for. But just so long as taxpayers pay for expensive play grounds, etc., the children of the poor will increase like rabbits in a burrow. No wonder our houses of refuge and reformatories are filled."

STEAMER ACTIONS

THEY WILL COME UP FOR DISPOSITION BEFORE JUDGE EVANS.

James Campbell, Jr., and A. E. Boyd Selected Trustees of Schwab Bankruptcy Proceeding.

Referee Bagby, of the bankruptcy court, is now arranging for final disposition of the three steamboat cases in this court, these actions coming before Judge Walter Evans while the latter is conducting the United States court next week here. The suits are those of the Lotus and Idaho, Charleston and Chattanooga. The priority of claims of debtors has been decided in these actions, and confirmation of the precedence given comes before the regular judge during the approaching session. It is anticipated the orders will then be made finally winding up the litigation, which resulted in the sale of these steamboats for the purpose of paying off the indebtedness of the former owners. The original owners of the Chattanooga bought her in, the wife of the owners of the Lotus and Idaho bought them in, while Frank Wagoner bought the steamer Charleston.

Schwab Estate.

In the bankruptcy court yesterday the creditors of the Moses Schwab bankruptcy cases held a meeting and elected James Campbell, Jr., and A. E. Boyd as trustees of the estate. Next Saturday another session will be held at which time Schwab will be examined as to his liabilities and assets. The trustees were ordered to execute bond in $2,000 each for the faithful performance of their duties. The liabilities scheduled for the estate amount to close on to $8,000.

BURY TODAY

REMAINS OF MR. PRIMO MERRITT WILL BE BURIED TODAY.

Miss M. E. P. James Died Yesterday Morning of Typhoid Fever in Maxon Mill Neighborhood.

This morning at 10 o'clock the funeral services will be held over the remains of the late Mr. Primo Merritt, by Rev. E. H. Cunningham, of the Second Baptist church. The ceremonies will be conducted at the home of the unfortunate young man's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Merritt, 417 South Eighth street, and be followed with interment at Mt. Kenton cemetery in the county.

The deceased was the young man who was accidentally killed several nights ago while out in the Clark river section of the county with a number of boy friends, hunting possums. His parents returned yesterday morning from Hopkinsville, where they were visiting at the time the son met his untimely fate.

Died of Typhoid.

Yesterday morning at her home in the Maxon's Mill neighborhood of the county, Miss M. E. P. James died after a three weeks' illness with typhoid fever.

The deceased was one of the best known and most lovable ladies of that vicinity and had many friends here in the city of Paducah. She was 47 years of age and leaves two brothers, Messrs. T. A. and J. B. James.

This morning at 10 o'clock the funeral services will be conducted and interment following at the Andoch cemetery of that vicinity.

PROPERTY SOLD

DEEDS FILED WITH COUNTY CLERK YESTERDAY FOR RECORD.

Schedule Shows That Y. M. C. A. Owes $1,176.23, While Assets Will Be About $700.

In the county clerk's office yesterday there was filed a deed wherein John E. Newman transferred to Ed Cohen, for $100, property out in the county.

W. A. Gardner transferred to John E. Newman, for $1, land lying in the county.

Thomas J. Stroud bought from Ellen Stroud, for $1, property at Fifth and Tennessee streets.

Gip Husbands transferred to J. W. Clark, for $175, property on Clement street, in Mechanicsburg.

Schedule Lodged.

In the county clerk's office yesterday there was lodged the schedule of liabilities and assets for the Young Men's Christian association that made an assignment. The debts are $1,176.23, while the assets will equal something like $700. It cannot be told what the latter will amount to until there is sold the furnishings and equipment of the organization. This will be done right away, so the business of the defunct concern can be quickly wound up.

ALLEGED ROBBERY

ADELIN MORTON AND EVA JOHNSON ARE GIVEN CONTINUANCES.

Their Was Dismissed Warrant Charging N. C. and St. L. With Blocking Street With Freight Car.

Eva Johnson and Adeline Morton, colored, were yesterday morning in the police court given another continuance until today of the case charging them with robbing a man named Rudolph of between $15 and $25, out about Ninth and Washington streets.

There was dismissed the petty larceny charge against Will Pool.

Wallace Perry was given a continuance until today of the breach of the peace charge against him.

There was dismissed the warrant charging the N. C. and St. L. railroad with leaving some box cars standing across the public street out at the Union depot so people and vehicles could not pass back and forth. The road employees claim that the drawheads pulled out of the car and they could not pull it out of the way. For this reason the warrant was dismissed.

There was assessed against Willie Smith a fine of $5 for a breach of the peace.

Ed Faris was fined $3 and costs for being drunk and disorderly.

CHARGED WITH LIBEL

Warrant For Lawson's Arrest Threatens to Return the Compliment.

Boston, Nov. 15.—The issuance of a warrant for the arrest of Thomas W. Lawson in connection with a suit for damages for alleged criminal libel brought by Clarence W. Barron, of Boston, was ordered by Judge Wentworth, of the municipal court, today. By agreement of counsel, however, the warrant will not be served until Saturday next, when Mr. Lawson will appear to answer to the charge against him. Meanwhile counsel for Lawson states application will be made by his client for the arrest of Barron also on charges of criminal libel.

The allegations of Barron against Lawson are based upon statements made in a magazine article which appeared in October under the name of Mr. Lawson, and in various typewritten tissue market sheets circulated by Mr. Lawson. The counter-charge grows out of alleged libelous matter against Lawson, which has appeared in the market slips published by the bureau of which Mr. Barron is the head.

COAL DEALERS

THEY HAVE ORGANIZED AND HAVE STARTED "BLACK LIST."

The Different Lines of Business Around the City are Getting Organized Thoroughly.

The coal dealers handling in retail quantities in this city, following the footsteps of other business men of this city, have organized a protective association amongst themselves. They have established their list of "bad pay" people and their agreements stipulate that no dealer will sell coal to any man on this "black list" until the individual desiring the fuel pays whatever bill he might owe to any other dealer. The dealers will put up deposits that will be declared forfeited and converted into their association treasury provided anyone violates the agreement of the compact.

Gradually the different business men of the city are organizing amongst themselves for their protection, and it will not be long before all are well heeled in this respect. The retail merchants have organized, the retail grocers, the coal-dealers, the fire insurance people, the builders and contractors, the wholesale grocers, and in fact, many others pursuing different lines of business, and thus far they find it greatly to their advantage for all to enter as a body and govern in a legitimate manner the business particularly affecting their respective line.

NEW ROADBED

WILL BE PLACED ALONG TENNESSEE CENTRAL BY THE I. C.

Chief Engineer McDonald and Others of N. C. and St. L. Out on Inspection Trip.

Contractor William Katterjohn expects to leave within the next few days for Chicago to confer with General Manager Harahan and the other high Illinois Central railroad officials regarding the rock to be furnished in reconstructing the roadbed for the Tennessee Central road which, after the first of next month, will be operated under lease by the Illinois Central. At his rock quarries near Princeton Mr. Katterjohn gets out stone and rock for the entire system of the Illinois Central and now that this line has acquired the operating possession of the Tennessee Central from Hopkinsville to Nashville, it will be put in first-class condition, and many hundreds of carloads of rock sent over on same.

Inspection Trip.

Yesterday morning Chief Engineer McDonald, of the N. C. and St. L. railroad, arrived here, and then he, Superintendent Hills and Assistant Engineer I. O. Walker left on a special train to be absent several days making a tour of inspection over this system, which extends from here to Memphis and Nashville, Tenn.

Employees Paid Off.

The Illinois Central pay car came in yesterday morning and paid off the employees, who were down in the city in large numbers in the afternoon and last evening, making purchases and transacting other business. The car leaves here for the Louisville division and after finishing up there proceeds over the balance of the system, handing the employees out their checks for the past month's salary.

New Position.

Mr. Harry Collins, of the Wahl Brothers laundry on Third near Kentucky avenue, has resigned his position and yesterday morning took a place in the office of Master Mechanic R. J. Turnbull, of the Illinois Central.

LEASE CLOSED

THE EAGLES NOW HAVE CHARGE OF OLD Y. M. C. A. QUARTERS.

If Assignee of Association Will Not Sell the Order He Will Be Required to Move.

Yesterday morning the committee from the Fraternal Order of Eagles closed a deal with Mr. W. H. Riecke whereby the former lease the Sixth and Broadway property, which is now in possession of the secret order. They pay $75 per month for the property and are now preparing to put same in first-class shape, same to be used as their club rooms and lodge room. Today the Eagles will confer with Assignee Harry Styles, of the Y. M. C. A., and see if arrangements cannot be made whereby the furnishings and equipment of the association will be sold to the Eagles by the assigned concern. If the assignee will not sell same to the lodge members the latter will then ask that the articles be moved so the Eagles can purchase their own furnishings, etc., and immediately install same. If the Y. M. C. A. does not sell the secret order their outfit they will be charged rent from the present time until the association effects can be taken from the place.

The Eagles also want to buy the gymnasium building standing to the rear of the Y. M. C. A. house proper, and the deal will doubtless be made because if any other buys the gymnasium they will be required to move same by the Eagles, and the cost of removal would be too great, therefore chances are the lodge will get that also without any trouble.

The Eagles held their regular weekly meeting last evening in their present quarters, at the Knights of Pythias hall on Broadway near Fifth street, and conferred the degrees upon a large number of candidates.

GRAPEVINE, SAYS

MAJ. THOMAS.

Declares He Knows Nothing of 'Trisco' Going Into Nashville.

Nashville, Nov. 15.—For some time there have been rumors that the 'Trisco' was exerting every effort to get into Nashville and that negotiations were on foot with the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railway for the use of its tracks. Today, however, a report emanating in Chattanooga reached the city to the effect that the 'Trisco' has purchased from the Louisville & Nashville all its holdings in Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis stock and would come into Nashville, establishing a through line from St. Louis to Atlanta. President J. W. Thomas, of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis, when approached on the matter, stated that he had heard nothing of it, and there was nothing in it, or any of the other rumors that had been going around. "It is grapevine," he said, "and I have heard nothing of it. There is nothing in the other rumors to the effect that the 'Trisco' will come into Nashville over the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis lines."

SOLICITOR SAYS SPECIAL ACT EXEMPTS THE BAPTIST ORPHANAGE.

The Officers of the Institution Got the Legislature to Put Through a Bill.

City Solicitor James Campbell, Jr., yesterday said that the municipal legislative boards were wrong if they believed he, the solicitor, was laboring under an erroneous impression regarding the scope of the appellate court decision in connection with the Baptist orphanage asylum of Louisville claiming its property exemptions from taxation. The solicitor says every piece of property of the orphanage is exempted from taxes under a special act passed by the state legislature in Kentucky.

The orphanage is located at Louisville and the late W. F. Norton bequeathed the institution some property on Broadway between Third and Fourth streets in this city. The property was sold to Jeweler Joe Wolff and others, but there is due on same one-half year's taxes while it belonged to the orphanage. The city is now trying to collect that tax, and had the matter referred to the solicitor, who reported the institution was exempted from taxation by the state legislature's special act, which was upheld by the appellate bench. On the solicitor making this report to the legislative authorities the latter referred the question back to him, believing that the solicitor did not fully understand the appellate court decision. In passing the proposition back to Lawyer Campbell the boards did so thinking that the courts exempted the orphanage from taxation on the property occupied by the institution in Louisville, but not on outside property the orphanage rented out and derived revenue therefrom. The solicitor, however, says the special act relieves them from paying on everything they possess, therefore his next report back to the council and aldermen will be an affirmation of his original statement.

BURNSIDE'S ROMANCE.

(Liberty Cor. Indianapolis News.)
The story of the life of Gen. Burnside is the sweetest morsel of patriotic reminiscence possessed by Liberty. He is the idol of local history. Liberty has only one other love—Joaquin Miller and Geo. Burnside were born at the gates of this old town, and the boyhood days of both were spent within its borders.

In December, 1851, Lieutenant Burnside returned from the Mexican War of Liberty for a visit, and while here he met a young woman from Kentucky. He fell in love almost at first glance and the affection seemed to be reciprocated. They became engaged and preparations for the wedding were made in the Kentucky home of the promised bride. The ceremony was to take place in a church and numerous guests had assembled to witness it.

Burnside and his sweetheart marched down the aisle to the music of a wedding march and took their place before the altar. The clergyman received the vow from the bridegroom and turned to the bride to ask if she were ready to take him as a husband. The assemblage was astounded when the woman before the altar stammered "No!" and broke the bandstand. She then hurried from the church followed by Burnside and the astonished wedding guests.

For years that sensational week of a youthful dream had an effect on him, and he had little to do with the gentler sex. He had the satisfaction of hearing, a few months after he was fitted, that the young woman had married another man under threat. She had boasted that she would serve him as she had Burnside. On the way to church, however, the bridegroom drew a revolver from his pocket and said:

"You are to be one of two things—my wife or a corpse."
The hint was sufficient and the trifle with masculine affections give an affirmative answer to the questions of the minister. For years afterward Burnside nursed a wounded heart, but there came a reckoning. When he became major general commanding the department of the Ohio the mother and sister of his false bride were caught betraying the union by carrying letters of information across the border into rebel territory. They had always sneered at Burnside and continued to sneer when confronted with the charge of being traitors. He banished them into rebel territory and they were unable to return to their homes until after the war. Prior to the war Burnside married Miss Mary Bishop.

In Uruguay, until within a few years, the sales of hides was the only part of the cattle industry that yielded any cash, the meat being mostly discarded as of no value.

BLUE PRINTS

COOPERAGE PEOPLE EXPECTING THAT FOR NEW DRY KILN.

St. Louis People Will Soon Finish Prints for Road Jeff Read Is Figuring On.

The blue prints for the new dry kilns at the cooperage works in Mechanicsburg are expected to arrive here in a few days from the Chicago concern that is making them. The kiln will be a new and modern one, up-to-date in every particular, and the cooperage people here have to have the prints before them before they can start the construction work as the kiln is of a kind never put up here before. It will have a capacity larger than the old plant which was destroyed by fire. Inside the kiln the timber is placed and dried while being prepared for conversion into barrel heads.

Railroad Prints.
Mr. Jeff J. Read yesterday said he expected the blue prints from St. Louis in about one week showing the outline, grades, routes, etc., for the new stretch of railroad to be constructed between Tiptonville and Union City, Tenn. Mr. Read is the contractor who will construct the line if it is built, and just as soon as the prints of the proposed route are finished and sent him he will figure up the probable cost and then submit his calculations to the capitalists behind the movement. Then decisions will be made as to whether or not the project is a certainty.

THE NATIONAL WEALTH.

A wonderful story of rapidly increasing national wealth is told by the statistics of the department of commerce and labor. Half a century ago the wealth of the United States was estimated at a little more than $7,000,000,000. At the present time it is placed at $10,000,000,000. During this half century the population of the country has multiplied by less than three and one-half, while the wealth multiplied by a little more than thirteen. During the period one person's share in the total wealth was multiplied by four.

The census of fifty years ago showed that the United States in point of wealth stood below half a dozen nations of the old world. Today all those nations have been entirely outdistanced. C. M. Harvey gives some standing figures in a recent magazine article. Although the United States comprised only 5 per cent. of the world's population, it produced, according to the last census, 22 per cent. of the world's wheat, 30 per cent. of its manufactures, 35 per cent. of its iron, 36 per cent. of its cattle, 50 per cent. of its petroleum, 54 per cent. of its copper, 75 per cent. of its cotton, and 84 per cent. of its corn.

Although the United States has only a twentieth of the world's inhabitants, it has a fifth of the world's stock of money and a fourth of its gold coin and bullion. The United States has two-thirds—$14,000,000,000—of the world's banking power—capital, surplus, deposits and circulation. Between 1890 and 1904 the banking strength of the world grew 105 per cent., and that of New York city 190 per cent.

The farmers and planters of the country according to the same authority, received last year more than $6,000,000,000 for their products. This equals the wealth of the entire country in 1845. The product of the country's mines for 1904 amounted to $1,500,000,000. The United States has a third of all the money deposited in the saving banks of the world. At the beginning of 1905 there were in the United States 212,000 miles of railroad, as compared with 300,000 for the world outside. The railroads earned $2,000,000,000 in 1904, and have in this employ 1,300,000 persons.

Iron and Steel Business Barometer.

(Washington Post.)

For years it has been held that activity in the iron and steel industries marked prosperity in general and that dullness in those trades signified depression in other avenues of business. To state it more accurately, hard times in the republic curtailed the demand for iron and steel; good times rapidly increased it. Today the iron and steel output is far and beyond the outputs of the best years in the records of the country and the difficulty is now to get orders for material accepted even for delivery months ahead. The absorption by the world is tremendous and there is every reason to believe that high-water in the orders has not yet been reached. The country is in the midst of unparalleled prosperity, with every evidence of its continuance for lengthy period.

Mrs. Caroline M. Severance, organizer of the first woman's club in the United States, lives in Los Angeles, Cal., at the age of 85. In 1850 she organized the New England club of Boston, and was president for three years.

The railroads of the United States have this year placed orders for 2,300 passenger cars, 217,444 freight cars, and 4,130 locomotives. And yet they are insufficiently equipped.

TAR ROOF SUIT

APPELLATE BENCH REVERSED THE CIRCUIT COURT YESTERDAY.

Terrell Refused to Pay for Roof on the Ground That It Was Full of Holes, and Wins.

The appellate bench yesterday reversed the local circuit court in the suit of John McHenry against Ed C. Terrell, the latter of whom was represented by Bagby & Martin.

The litigation is for money. McHenry claims is due from defendant for a roof he put on the stable. Terrell erected on Third between Kentucky avenue and Washington streets. It was one of those gravel, tar and other composite roofs and Terrell refused to pay the $375 claimed for same on the ground that it was full of holes and not properly put down. McHenry brought suit in the local circuit court and was given judgment for the amount. Terrell carried the litigation to the appellate bench and that tribunal yesterday reversed the lower court, but it is not known whether a new trial is ordered or whether a judgment is given for defendant. This will not be ascertained until the court of appeals.

THE ACCOUNT HABIT.

"If I had daughters," said a capitalist, "I should never permit them to have an account with a shop. The account habit is productive of more pecuniary trouble than any other; and no woman should be brought up in this country of feather-blown fortunes on any plan which would not be a good one for the poor."

"But an account is so convenient, one needn't wait for change," said one woman.

"You can get what you need in May and pay for it in June and have a month's happiness out of it. Is that worth nothing?" asked a second.

"It's all the same in the end," said a third. "You have so much money; you always spend it. What's the difference whether you spend it before or after receiving it?"

As a matter of fact it is a well known principle that the buying power of any given sum is greatly increased by the distance between this would-be buyer and the sum. The October allowance seen from September looms large and magnificent. Having, an account, the woman who sees it orders with a prodigality to fit her impressions. It requires the allowance of November and December to meet the indebtedness.

Of course, the account habit fosters extravagance. A woman would hesitate to buy a green silk waist or to order the nectarines which she could live contentedly enough without did she have to take the last coin or bill in her purse to pay for them. But they are to be charged! Happy thought! She can have them and keep the money in her purse—and she does; and next month has none.

The account habit makes debt seem natural and not in the least disgraceful. It utterly destroys the habit of self denial in little luxuries. And there are very few whose financial position and whose moral natures are sufficiently high to be entirely impervious to these things.

Training of Womanhood.

(Louisville Herald.)

Does not Lord Lytton's remarkable characterization of English training for womanhood in this day have bearing on American conditions today? Lord Lytton said:

"It seems sometimes odd enough to me that while young ladies are so sedulously taught the accomplishments that a husband disregards, they are never taught the great one he would prize. They are taught to be exhibitors; he wants a companion. He wants neither a singing animal, nor a drawing animal, nor a dancing animal; he wants a talking animal. But to talk they are never taught; all they know of conversation is slander, and that comes by nature."

So wrote Lord Lytton many years—even many decades—ago. Does his structure on the system of education then in use for young women apply to that of the present day? Or have we made any change at all worth noting since his day in the training of girls? Lytton's remark about the talking animal reminds one of the reason given by President Benjamin Harrison for his second marriage. Mr. Harrison gallantly observed that the lady in the case was "a good listener."

A CURIOSITY WILL BE ON EXHIBITION AT INGLESIDE LODGE.

Mangum Lodge of Odd Fellows and the Elks Meet Tonight and Red Men Tomorrow Evening.

At the meeting of Ingleside lodge of Odd Fellows tomorrow evening in their assembly room at the Fraternity building there will be on exhibition the first pin of that secret order ever worn by an Odd Fellow. It is quite a curiosity and the members will be out enmasse to inspect same and also hear the spirited debate which will be held during the gathering on the question of whether or not members should be solicited for the order.

Other Meetings.

This evening Mangum lodge of Odd Fellows meets at their hall in the Fraternity building.

The weekly session of the Red Men will be held tomorrow night at their hall on North Fourth street.

The Elks' regular session is conducted this evening at their hall on North Fourth street.

FORETELLS WEATHER.

(Zion's Herald.)

A new apparatus, the "aquameter," has been devised for assisting in the compilation of weather forecasts. In such work hitherto a very important factor has not been sufficiently taken into consideration—the exactitude of the percentage of aqueous vapor in the approaching winds. The barometer gives some such indication, but the height of the barometer depends upon wind pressure and temperature as well as moisture. The wet and dry bulb thermometers constitute an antiquated instrument and are not sufficiently reliable, as their variation depends on erratic circumstances and their indications are not represented in actual percentages or aqueous vapor. Rain results when an atmosphere nearly saturated with aqueous vapor becomes lowered in temperature. The nearness or otherwise of a wind to its saturation point is therefore a most important question. That question has hitherto had to be determined by recourse to elaborate apparatus, including a chemical balance. By using the aquameter, however, which is a simple instrument, the exact percentage of aqueous vapor can be obtained. By the opening and shutting of two taps and the raising and lowering of a mercury reservoir a measured quantity of air is drawn into a glass vessel and placed in contact with any hydrous phosphoric acid, which is a rapid water absorbent. The rise of mercury in the narrow glass stem of the vessel then gives the exact percentage of the aqueous vapor in the air.

THE DEFEAT OF GORMAN.

(Lexington Herald.)

In taking accounts of the casualties of the recent election one of the most serious and in many respects one of the most significant has been generally overlooked, that is the disastrous defeat of Senator Gorman in Maryland. The constitutional amendment, which he had set his heart upon, which was his own pet measure, the adoption of which would certainly have meant the absolute control of Maryland by him for the remainder of his days, was overwhelmingly rejected. The Republican ticket in the state and in the city of Baltimore was elected. Senator Rayner, who won his seat in the senate over the opposition of Gorman, opposed the amendment and the result of the election undoubtedly strengthens his position as the leader of the Maryland Democracy. Gorman has been steadily losing ground for the last few years, as was evidenced in the election of Rayner to the senate.

(The election is Maryland's final repudiation of Gorman as a leader. It destroys whatever prestige he may have had in the national councils of the party. He can never again exert any influence of consequence in controlling the policy of the Democratic party. While he has undoubtedly rendered some service to his party and great service to the country, particularly the South, it is not unjust to say that there is really no good reason to deplore the distaste which has overtaken him. The good he has done is to a very great extent counter-balanced by his evil influence in Democratic councils. No other man was more largely responsible for the failure of the Democratic administration and the Democratic congress to redeem its pledges upon which they were entrusted with power in 1892. If a Democratic Maryland must also mean a Gorman Maryland, it is doubtless well enough for Democracy that the state be Republican.

Lady St. Heller since the death of her husband, Sir Francis Jeune, the famous divorcee judge, has led a retired life. Once one of the greatest of society leaders, she now spends her time in charitable and philanthropic work.

Sir Alfred Harmsworth, the London newspaper man, has added another to his long list of publications, in purchasing the London World.

Out of Date Plumbing is Unhealthy

If your plumbing is out of date, the members of your household are constantly risking their health. Defective plumbing generates germ-bearing sewer gases which pollute the atmosphere and cannot help but be breathed by the occupants.

Let us examine the condition of your plumbing, correct defective piping and install the best sanitary fixtures made, namely "Standard" Baths and One-piece Lavatories. Our illustrated booklet "Modern Home Plumbing" sent free upon application.

SOCIAL EVENTS

MISS KIRKPATRICK MARRIES AT RIPLEY, TENN., NEXT MONTH.

Matinee Musicale Club Holds Entertainment Saturday Afternoon—
Club Notes.

Friends here have received invitations announcing that December 12th, at the home of the popular bride in Ripley, Tenn., there will be united in marriage Miss Monie Kirkpatrick, of that place, and Mr. D. John Abbott, of Louisville. After a two weeks' bridal tour over the country the happy pair will go to Louisville to make their home in the future.

The bride is the unusually beautiful and winsome young lady of many admirers, who has several times visited Miss May V. Patterson, of Jefferson between Fifth and Sixth streets, in this city. She is a cultured and accomplished young lady and most charmingly remembered here by everybody.

Mr. Abbott ranks as one of the Falls City's most progressive and sterling young business men, and is connected in a responsible capacity with a large vineyard establishment. Miss Patterson will attend the wedding from here, while many acquaintances send forward their sincere congratulations to the well known couple.

Matinee Musicale.

The Matinee Musicale club will next Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock hold the first of its entertainments, which will be at the residence of Mrs. David M. Flournoy, of Seventh and Harrison streets, at which time all the members will be there, both active and associate, and a most delightful time had. This body is the newly organized club consisting of the most able musical talent both vocal and instrumental, of this city, the object of the organization being for advancement of the art and social entertainment. This is the first assembly for rendition of an arranged programme, and it is looked forward to with much delight by all. The programme is as follows:

1. Reading—Musical Instruments and Their Origin.
2. Piano solo, "Waltz"—Chopin.
3. Vocal duet, "Greeting"—Mendelssohn.
4. Soprano solo, (a) "Call Me Back," (b) "A May Morning"—Denza.
5. Piano trio for six hands, "Fantasia" on "Airs from Mozart's Operas"—C. Czerny. Opus 74th.
6. Contralto solo, (a) "The Poet," (b) "Near There"—Lassen.
7. Piano duo, Overture from "William Tell"—Rossini.

Evening Reception.

Next Tuesday evening from 8:30 until 11 o'clock Mrs. Laura Fowler, of Broadway, will receive complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Saunders Fowler, who will return the last of this week from their bridal tour.

Charming Affair.

The reception of Mrs. James P. Smith yesterday afternoon, at her home on Washington near Fifth street, was a most elegant and fashionable affair, attended by many people of this city, and numerous visitors. The handsome home was gorgeously decorated for the occasion, while many beautiful gowns were in profuse evidence amongst the many there. The entertainment was complimentary to Mrs. James-Rose and Miss Helen Van Cleve, of Springfield, Ill., and Misses Esther and Ruth Wheeler, of Lima, Ohio.

New Social Club.

Miss Anna Harlan, of South Fourth street, last evening entertained the Sans Forme club, and a most delightful time was had by the guests of this attractive and popular hostess.

Talks Postponed.

The Art Talks announced by Miss Alice Compton for next Saturday have been postponed until further notice.

Married Here.

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock there arrived here from Sparta, Ill., Miss Ethel Cathcart and Mr. E. B. Finley, who repaired to the county court-house and there procured from the clerk a wedding license. Afterwards in the parlors of Hotel Craig, at Fifth and Jefferson streets, the young people were united in marriage by Rev. E. E. Eshman, of the First Cumberland Presbyterian church.

The young people are now at that popular hostelry, but this morning will return to their home in the adjoining state, where they are members of well known families, and came here for the novelty of an out-of-town wedding.

Entertains at Card.

Mrs. John Walthall Little, of Fourteenth and Jefferson streets, has issued invitations for a card party she will give at 2 o'clock the afternoon of Friday, November 24th.

Many at Dance.

Last evening an unusually large crowd was at the dance given at the Palmer by the Cotillion club. The guests remained on the floor until a late hour indulging in the enjoying gathering.

Married at Folsomdale.

Miss Zella Carney, of Folsomdale, and Mr. C. L. Parrott, of Mayfield, were married yesterday at the bride's home.
